

MAGIC MIXTURE

"Double trouble, boil and bubble!" chanted Macbeth's witches as they stirred up their pot of decocted passion and scored four centuries of students. As students of beauty, we could be hexed by Gena, one of the boilingest, sultry sirens ever!

Some of history's magic mixtures have included TNT (carbon, hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen); Coca Cola (cola berry and seltzer) and brass (copper and zinc)—but our choice for most magical is Miss Gena Veldare, who's explosive as TNT, soft as a drink of Coke, and brassy as anything!

"I'm kind of a patpourri," says Gena, "—I'm composed of equal parts of Italian, German, Polish and Scotch." From the Italian comes her temper; from the German—stubbornness; Polish—coolness; and the Scotch? Her high spirits, natch.

LIKE A MILLION AT A MULLION

A "mullion," just in case you're not up on your Gothic architecture, is a window divider. But when it comes to dividing windows, we'll take Faith Huston. Her architecture's always in style 'cause she's the one-in-a-million kind of mullion designed to enhance any view!

Window-framed, this shopety mullion always looks like a million and, despite the pane-ful background, it's any window-washer's dream to zero in his squeegee on a sight like Faith. She's just right far eyeing through glass!

But no matter which side of the pane you're peering from, Faith's
a million dollar baby
— just perfect to perk up any window display!

Study in Black...

Proof that ebony will never lose its appeal is offered by pert, curvy Debby Nelson, a brunette-tressed, dark-eyed delight who does stress it from top to toe. She epitomizes the basic lure of basic black!

PICK YOUR OWN DESERT ISLAND PLAYMATE...

As Yeats or one of the other great poets has so truly said:

"I will rise and go now to a far-out pad—a desert island like, with the coolest chick I ever had!" Anyway, for those with like wants, we present an island-full of cool chicks far far-out pads...

If Robinson Crusoe had stumbled across a gal Friday like Susanna Morrissey, on the beach, above, we guarantee he never would have got past the first chapter of his literary classic (neither, in fact, did we Studs Lonigan fans). Above, right, an alliterative Lily Langley Loves Lounging alluringly on blanket in altogether, and Joanna Sanderson does the same on a luxuriant blanket of autumn leaves...

□ Suppose your desert island was a rock-bound Galapago?

It would be all the more reason for having something soft and cuddly like blande Dona Daniels, the sunny bunny at right. She'd make any such place truly a des(s)ert island!

“NO man is an island,” said John Donne, and neither is a woman. But man has always yearned for an island far from the madding throng, one on which he might spend a percentage of his life in company with the Ideal Woman. If you are so bent, then straighten up and take your choice of these ideal desert island partners. ‘Cause someone also said: “Dreams are cheap.” ●

□ Rito Matthews has gone and got herself out on a limb over this desert island thing. “Sure, I’d like to be on a desert island with a mon — on one condition: He would have to own the island!”

□ Would you like to meet Pat Albright? On her desert island? Well, then, just write her a note and say so? Where to? Who knows? If a desert island had a postoffice, it wouldn’t be a desert island, would it?

Linda German's tying a ribbon around her luscious limb so's not to forget to buy her ticket to her own personal desert island. No, she won't say just where it is located.

Writing love-letters in the sand is Janet Steele. Ta whom? Ta herself, of course — this is a desert island! But what a waste of writing!

We don't want to show any favoritism, you understand, but — well, we've saved Carolyn Castle for the last, but far from least, likely choice. So dream away...

Another cold gal in name only is Gigi Frost, here warming up a sunny beach as she panders the advisability of sending out an SOS in a bottle. "Solitude I like — but I like company better!"

At left, Dattie Wolf says, "Yes, I'd dearly love to be cast away on a desert island with someone — however, I insist upon one stipulation: I don't want to be with my namesake!" (A wolf, see?)

Jane Larson has picked her island—it's Andros in the Bahamas—and is practicing up for it in un-deserted Southern California...

PRIZES OF PAREE

WAY OUT OUTING

There's one thing that Norma Nelson and Greta Garbo have in common—and it's not the way they're built. This lassie, like Greta, likes to be alone. A dancer in Las Vegas, Norma attracts more than her share of attention. So, when she gets a chance, our black-haired beauty relaxes in isolated spots.

Some people prefer the mountains and others like the seashore. Personally, any place where we can ogle Norma is the place to be. Just because she likes to be by herself at times, don't get same kind of idea that Norma is a loner. She rooms with two other dancers, has a steady boy friend and loves parties, skin-diving, and twisting. Norma was a secretary before becoming a dancer but gave it up when her boss kept dictating propositions instead of prepositions. It sure turned out for the best.

Norma credits lots of milk and plenty of sunshine for her lovely complexion. The green-eyed charmer was voted by her high school chums as the girl most likely to get men in a dither. They were prophetic because Norma's 38-26-36 frame has caused more second glances than a four-foot man with a six-foot woman. Her guy's 6'2".

A quiet weekend in the still countryside is the best relaxation for Norma. She tries to get away at least four or five times a year. Norma's only contact with civilization during these retreats is her Sinatra albums.

Everybody Loves a Fireplace

Home is where the hearth is as far as Susan Woite is concerned. She'll gladly do without some luxuries, but insists on fireplace.

It took a lot of scrimping and saving to be able to afford a little cottage of her own, but fireplace makes it worthwhile.

It's Susan's opinion that "everybody loves a fireplace." And why wouldn't they with such voluptuous decor to set it off?

All right! Everybody out of the frying pan and into the fire now! It's time to toast the hostess with the mostes' of all!

Throw another log on the fire and watch it crackle with appreciation at the sizzling charms of vivacious Susan Waite, a fireside chatterbox whose tarsi speak torrid volumes on the delights of hearth-and-home. With the blaze going strong and Susan blazing stranger, what could be warmer and cozier than an evening spent beside the fire?

The Sizzlers Who

Today, this desert resort is unquestionably the world's greatest citadel of glamor. The shapeliest shapes to Jeanne Aromis and Helga Bjornstrand (l.) come all the way from Bordeaux and Copenhagen respectively to lead off one of the top Los Vegas chorus lines. Their tarridily's typical.

American beauties travel from east and west to compete for a chance to appear in a Vegas extravaganza. Two who made it are Eleanor Richter from Moine and Ann Dawes (r.) of Seattle.

Among the most sizzling of the sirens appearing in Vegas are these girls from the chorus of the Minsky show. When the most famous nome in burlesque was dealt in, all shows got hatter.

Heated Up Las Vegas!

be found anywhere made it great. What keeps it great is the constant competition to up the torso torridity!

The torridity become even more intense when niteries began to import the top French spectaculars. Here, the Folies Bergere presents two of its top teasers to demonstrate the Paris style.

ONCE the Mecca for American stripteasers was Minsky's. Once the ultimate for Parisian duds doffers was the Lido, or the Folies Bergere. Today, the Mecca for Minsky girls is Las Vegas and the ultimate for French femmes is likewise this garden spot of the desert land. Yes, there can be no doubt that today Las Vegas represents the tops in success to those girls around the world who build their careers on the appeal of their builds. When it comes to torso torridity, the Nevada oasis is unquestionably the hottest spot to be found anywhere. But the heat emanating from there is really the result of a calculated import program to draw these beauties from near and far. All that Vegas represents to them, they in turn have been responsible for creating. They brought the qualities to Vegas which make the town sizzle and it is their presence which assures that the mercury will stay at the top of the thermometer. The standards they set are high, and newcomers must truly possess top talent and beauty in order to qualify for any one of the Las Vegas stage shows. Nevertheless, fresh new faces are being continually drawn there, and with each new crop the artistry of undraped entertainment grows and flourishes. The policy, of course, is to sizzle more and more each year!

But Vegas has a style all its own as well. And here are two natives of the resort city in a western satire as sexy as it is funny. These two girls went on to appear in a H'wood film.

Storring in a horem sequence in one Vegas revue, these three beauties were actually brought in from as Oriental a region as old London. They may lack authenticity, but nothing else!

Any hit show, as represented by Christine Parker (far L.) and Anna Marie Margantine (L.), both native American girls, stresses bareness over all. But French imports, as Simone Giradoux of the Folies Bergere company demonstrates, also try to dazzle with elaborate, ingeniously revealing costumes.

The charmes in the current show at the Sonds Hotel (L.) come from such far-flung places as South Africa, Finland and Japan. But the harem-girl beauty, above, in the Dunes' extravaganza is strictly from New York. Her name's Ruth Golden and she was born and raised in the Bronx. Still she ups that Vegas heat just as much as foreign femmes.

Here are eight separate pictures from eight different Vegas shows which show better than any words could just what the extent is of the nitery heat-wave in the world's most glamorous resort city. Nowhere on the face of the earth will you find such an influx of new faces accompanied by such exciting and beautifully formed bodies. Los Vegas is truly where the girls go, and looking at the girls who go there, it becomes too obvious why so many men follow!

Of The Beholder

Beauty is in the eyes of the beholder, the poet said, meaning of course, that one man's beauty might indeed be another man's beast — but even the poet would except such as Annette Scott, who represents such classic beauty that she is beyond any comparison.

Dork-haired Annette, of Scotch-Italian heritage, is one of the aqua-girls at Florida's famed Silver Springs. Born in Miami, she learned water sports when she learned to walk, was an expert swimmer, scuba diver and water skier by the time she reached high school. She was captain of her high school swimming and girls' water polo teams, of course; was also winner of the Miami Beach all-high school teen-age beauty contest at 16.

Annette hopes to make the U.S. Olympic swimming team next time out, and is studying for a college degree in Education in her spare time, with a future in mind as a teacher of Health Education in high school.

WORKING HER WAY SOUTH

From Winnipeg to New York, from Washington to New Orleans, torrid torch singer Ann Kramer has blazed a remarkable trail, singing the blues in the night clubs, all over North America.

Born north of Minnesota, Ann found that warbling hot jazz helped to keep her warm on cold nights.

Now that she's performing in New Orleans, Ann belts out ragtime—and well enough to keep herself in “glad rags.”

Whether she does a blues or rock 'n roll number, men who listen to her just can't help chorusing joy fully, “You Made Me Love You.”

NORMAN CONQUEST

We came, we saw, we were conquered. Sultry Susan Norman agreed to pose for our photog and when we saw the results we simply had to let you see Sue. Fortunately, the film wasn't singed by that sizzling look.

The Girl Watchers' Top Dream Girls

Some people like to watch the sun come up and bird-watching is also extremely popular. But, for those who think young beautiful lossies make the best watching of all, here's truly a bononzo. These are the kind of girls you dream about, so stop dreaming and take a look.

To become a member of the Girl-Watchers Association, you need two things — a girl to ogle and good eyes to ogle with. We'll furnish the first part and the gleom in your eye is automatic. If you'll focus upper left you'll find Holly Rothman for your perusing pleasure. Drop your glance and Sharon Schuyler affords a pickup while a peek above reveals all the charms of Lindo Lowlor. After seeing them, aren't you going to start watching birds less and enjoying girls more? Furthermore, these girls are on view all year. There's no danger of them flying south for the winter.

THE EDITORS of FROLIC have been girl-watchers more years than they care to remember. Not that it hasn't been fun, it's just that they don't like to think they're getting old. They remember whistling at girls in high button shoes and standing on the corner watching all the girls go by. Now, they think of Europe where girl-watching is being replaced by girl-pinchin', particularly in Italy. Jayne Mansfield, Anita Ekberg, Sophia Loren and Tina Louise know about that. When we gander the dolls on these pages, we just want to pinch ourselves to make sure that we're not dreaming all of this.

All we do the whole day through is dream of Annette Moore (above). And is there anything wrong with that? We just want more of Moore. If you are wandering what become of Sally, then just look to the right and you'll find Sally Wyler all alone by the telephone. Sally's right up our alley.

Did you ever see a dream posing? Sure, and her name is Borbie Branson (above). She works for an advertising agency in Santa Monica. A hit song suggests that you dream when you're feeling blue but how can you feel blue when you can look at luscious Mario Hurst in glowing full color at right? What dream is dreamier?

Since you can never have too much of a good thing, here's another batch of the kind of girls you dream about but so very seldom see. If dreaming can be this rewarding it might pay to sleep all the time. But then, you'll miss the real live dreams walking around. You can't win!

Here's a very good reason why girl watching has become one of the most popular pastimes in America—Greta Arnold. The trim blonde from Minneapolis played the organ at her high school assemblies but switched from pumping to posing in L.A.

Bird-watchers like to watch robins and girl-watchers admire Robbins, too. Gay Robbins, that is. She loves having the boys look at her but she's on the lookout, also. Gay's guy, rich or poor, must have a good sense of humor.

A bell-ringer in any glamour sweepstakes is exotic Gina Bell. In addition to an eye-popping figure she also has an ear-caressing singing voice. The blonde dream at the right is cute Viola Fraser, a honey from Houston. Vi adores kids, and even likes to baby-sit.

Gina Marina poses a dilemma for girl watchers; she has such nice legs, trim hips and nifty bustline, plus gorgeous eyes, that a guy doesn't even know where to look first.

The Lady in Red

IT'S SAD BUT TRUE, and you might as well face it, you're not apt to see the lady in red at your local beach club. It won't do you any good to get your hopes up and haunt the poolside. The lady's not for viewing — except on these pages. The reason is that Lorna Dru — that's the lady's name — confines her red-veiled cavorting to the premises of the exclusively female club where she lives. The club, strictly off-limits to all males, offers free locker, steam-room and pool facilities to its residents. Protected by a high wall, the girls frequently bathe and sun themselves in the buff. They enjoy cavorting like Lorna, the lady in red! ●

RUSTY'S NOT...

Blue eyes and red hair give any gal a head start to real beauty. Toss in a sparkling smile, creamy skin and a fabulous figure and you have an unbeatable combination, Rusty Allen.

Born and raised in Sarasota, Fla., Rusty took her credentials (37-23-35) to the Coast, and that's how the West was won over. Studio bigwigs feel that Rusty, one of our cover girls, can't miss the big time.

Ordinarily, we don't approve of betting unless, of course, it's a sure thing. Well, here is one sure thing. Jet down the name of Rusty Allen as a cinch for future stardom in Hollywood. Rusty, who belies her name by being bright and shiny, had a bit part in a movie and sizzled right across the screen and into a nice long-term contract. And it's a far cry from her job as a restaurant cashier. Now she's ringing up successes.

HOW TO APPRECIATE ART

To properly understand art, one must start at an early age and develop taste by studying the old masters as Mai did.

Frequent trips to museums to view traditional art were a part of her childhood. Today her taste swings to modern.

"The eye must learn to adjust itself to abstract art," says Mai. "But it's worth the trouble."

There are those interested in painting who read extensively on the history and development of art. There are others who make it a point to visit galleries and museums. But the best way we know of learning to appreciate art is by appreciating the appreciator, especially if she's an art-lover like Mai Bergen!

Over the years Mai has acquired an extensive collection of books on the history of art.

She has also added to her own modest collection of paintings, but you're looking at the greatest work of art that she possesses.

A Work of Art, Too!

Any of the old masters would have been proud had they been able to duplicate the vision of loveliness that is Peggy Ernst. Her classic features are made to order for the swift strokes of the artist's brush. But, we don't envy any man who attempts to capture her delicate beauty on canvas.

Marie was a top Paris model, before she came here and discovered that Americans dug her charms too.

Vive La Difference!

Marie Renee, the lovely lass before you, has lived 18 of her 19 years in Paris. This last year she's been a resident of New Orleans, making her home in the charming French Quarter of that city. Now, with all this Gallic in her girlhood, it's obvious that Marie is as French as fried potatoes, and her migration to New Orleans shouldn't make but the most petite difference. But ah! As the old saying goes, hooray for that little difference! For it is just that little difference that gives us, not France, most claim to her beauty!

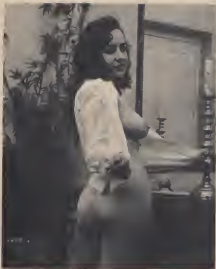

But modeling is just a sideline with Marie now. Of a more intellectual bent, she prefers to use her language skills to tutor.

However, while Marie's French students can learn plenty, students of beauty can learn a lot, lot more.

Marie plans to become a U.S. citizen, finds Americans a friendly people. Natch. We just love that difference!

If you're a Cosper Milquetoast when it comes to the fair sex, here's the latest lowdown on what can be done according to expert psychologists and smart sirens!

RECENT psychological studies into the problems of the shy guy who turns from he-man into blushing bumbler whenever a girl appears on the scene indicate that the roots of his bashfulness are firmly planted in the moss which has covered over his ego. Digging beneath that moss, opine the headshrinkers, will set free his girling impulses and render him fit for wolfish duty. As to how he can do this, the mind-delvers recommend that he adhere to the following rules: 1) Try to remember the very first time the fear of females was felt; 2) Once it's remembered, enlist the aid of a female friend to re-enact the situation in detail; 3) During this "acting-out" process, when the point at which fear occurs is felt, work to substitute any other valid emotion for it; 4) If, after a few attempts, this has been done successfully, seek out other females and test reactions to them; 5) Be as aggressive as possible at this stage and let nothing impede new-won confidence. Remember, even when females react negatively, they are flattered by a man's attentions; 6) Seek out the most beautiful girls available in order to maintain your new ego-status; 7) Confess your erstwhile problem to them freely. Talking about it helps. And you'll find them sympathetic and full of advice —like these girls here!

"Girls are people too. Don't be scared of them." That's the advice of Mia Marena to males who stammer and blush when they come into her spectacular presence. Mia believes that often beauty is a drawback in personal relationships because it makes men shy.

Penny Damone points out that if a girl wants to take the trouble to draw out the shy man, it will go a long way towards helping him overcome his bashfulness. But most beauties won't bother.

It's really up to the timid soul to help himself, according to Maybelle Johnston. She says she'd rather bottle a walf any day than be bored to tears by a nervous beau.

Nancy Owen agrees. "There's nothing worse than spending an evening trying to get a man who's afraid of you over his fear," she says. "Conversation's like pulling teeth."

"Even if a man lacks self-confidence, he should try to act like he has it if he wants to impress any girl." That's the considered advice of Ann Ives.

"No matter how bashful a man is, he has to realize that no woman can be expected to respect him if he's not respecting himself," points out Marie Bernard.

Jane Small recommends outdoor activities as one method by which shy men can build up their egos. With a companion like her along, it certainly would work.

But the thing most needed
by timid men to build up
their confidence is a large dose of inspiration. So here's Lono Curtis, just what the head-doctor ordered
to make bashful guys speak
out very loud and clear!

Lotsa Jack for this Jill

The first time famed photographer Philip Meister saw the beauty on these pages he exclaimed, "GREAT SCOTT." Actually, her name is Jill Scott but Meister knew he was looking at something special. In two short years, Jill became the most sought-after lingerie model on the West Coast and the loot poured in. Jill has used some of the jack to build a small bungalow on the beach.

Jill Scott, a fiery redhead from Buffalo, N. Y., came out to Hollywood to seek her fortune in the flicks. She tried modeling while waiting for a break and did so well that she kept at it.

Photogs can snap Jill from any angle since she doesn't have a bad side. Or bad anything, yes?

Jill is not only as pretty as a picture but she points pretty pictures, too. Aside from pointing, her favorite hobbies are water skiing and skeet shooting. Jill likes to refer to the bungolow she owns as "The House That Jack Built..."

Kissin' Cousins

The blonde beauty of Sally Lowton will soon enhance your TV screen.

Philadelphia, cradle of our nation, was really rockin' back in the mid-40s when these glamorous young ladies were mere babes-in-arms. All three girls have the pleasure of being distantly related. When it comes to the pleasure of all that kissin' considered common between cousins, however, any man would prefer knowing it was being provided by someone outside the family — and namely, himself!!

Pomelo Glynn, like cousins, is now in the glamor field in Los Angeles.

HARRIS IN PARIS

Oh to be in Paris now that Harris is there! Paris, the city of life and light, is even livelier since sultry Jean Harris left New York's Latin Quarter to dance in the real Latin Quarter over in Gay Paree. We wish she'd hurry back.

We love Harris in the springtime and we love Harris in the fall. In fact, we love Harris all the time. Jeanie with the light brown hair has the Frenchmen flipping for her terrific dance routines. You can hear them all sighing on the Seine.

A name that suits the frame is that of Candy McKay, as sweet a glamor goodie as we've feasted our eyes upon in many a day. This honey's got the kind of sugar-coated personality and a tastily torrid torso that makes men melt. And when Candy's displayed without a wrapper, it's strictly WOW!

WHAT A CONFECTION!

EROTICA

Now There Are Two Erotica Records

Two of the most electrifying records ever produced, the Erotica #1 and the brand new EROTICA #2, combine to bring you a panorama of erotic experience never before recorded. Never before have you experienced such heart pounding delights, incense, unashamed, startling beyond description. Here the sensual, almost unbearable sounds of erotic love, the soft groans and sighs and whispered words that sting and lash desire (... Ohrid). These records pay full tribute to the beauty of man's greatest experience. The cries and moans of delight and despair, pain and pleasure, ecstasy and exultation, are a thousandfold more satisfying and more beautiful than any improvisation art.

A record famous the day it was released. The thousands who purchased it were divided by a bold and daring new adventure in recorded sound. Never has a record captured such transgressive content and ecstasy. The sounds and rhythms of erotic love actually come alive in breathtaking high fidelity. This record is a masterful epic of the senses. It brings you to the peak of the public ecstasy of creation. It is a startling, fantastic presentation you'll never forget. It is an exciting record, a true collector's masterpiece you'll be fighting to own. Order your limited edition album at this most unique recording today!

The record of America has been writing for Erotica #1, the record that "could never be repeated" has been equaled and in some ways surpassed. Erotica #2 starts with soul-baring sounds of passion, pain and pleasure in breathtaking variations. Their fan brings you the true unexpurgated sensuality of Erotica as England and Scotland in the loss of songs and beliefs that badly delight in the publication of the senses. They are completely unashamed and there is yet one more surprise you must discover for yourself. If you are especially perceptive you will find much more going on than you think. Order it now!

Away from the Crowd

Far from the maddening crowd—and prying eyes—go these three misses in search of “peace and quiet.” All three are leading lights in the whirl of Hollywood modeling, and cherish their own brand of sweet solitude.

Lina Du Vant has a grape arbor in the yard of her home in Tarzana, likes to lie there in the shade.

Give Sally Bartman a long, lonely expanse of her favorite beach, near La Jolla, and she's content.

Rene Le Mayne is a woods nymph, finding the forest a perfect place to hide from all—except the sun.

SEX GUIDES

Bride and Groom

By P. M. Roscoe, M.D. The only up-to-date sex manual published since Prof. Kinsey's volume on female sexuality and incorporating statistics from its New, revised edition. Completely illustrated with exclusive drawings to sum up in dramatic graphic form Dr. Roscoe's advice.

Subjects covered include the male and female sex organs, a review of homosexuality, habits, aphrodisiacs, auto-eroticism, the mutual climax vs. the individual orgasms, masturbation in marriage, sex organ disparity (both male and female) and how to overcome it, delaying the climax, the breasts as an erotic factor, conception and childbirth, causes of sexual failures in husbands.

Variances in sex age between man and woman, unconventional sexuality, glossary of sex terms, preliminary coital technique, coital premisses (for both husband and wife), coital positions — (1) to 151 husband-above, (20 to 381 wife-above, (39 to 461) on-the-side, (47 to 551) seated, (56 to 611) kneeling/standing, (62 to 651) misc.

The afterplay, eliminating difficulties, preventing and eliminating sex shock in wives, problems caused by undersized and over-sized mates, multiple orgasms for the wife, etc.$3.00.

Sex Feeling in Married Men & Women

Dr. Kelly's outstanding sex manual is especially valuable for three reasons: (1) It covers the entire subject of sex in marriage — male and female reproductive organs, sex impulse in men v. women, masturbation in and out of marriage, impotence, average male organ size, coital postures (with advantages of each).

Facts & fallacies about the clitoris, preclitoral stimulation, problems of the sexually frustrated wife (with case histories), sex myths, aids to penetration, intercourse during pregnancy and menstruation, determining intimate desires of the wife, frequency of intercourse, overcoming sex problems, oral eroticism, etc.

(2) It abounds in important facts generally available only in higher priced books — enlarging the male penis to a maximum, the wife's assistance in overcoming semi-impotence, erotic fears of wives, eliminating problems caused by oversized and under-sized husbands, prolonging coitus, multiple orgasms for the wife, etc.

(3) Its original drawings. These include the male & female sex organs, both internal and external and specially-drawn illustrations, available in no other manual, which depict the correct and incorrect methods of penetration (with and without perineal clitoral contact). $3.50.

SEX TECHNIQUE IN MARRIAGE

WRITTEN BY
Dr. L. E. HUTTON
Illustrations
by Valerie Rogers

ALL too many marriages fail because of ignorance... because husbands and wives do not know that keeping marriage alive is an art that must be studied and practiced. Disappointment in the sexual side of marriage often causes divorce and separation. You can prevent sexual satisfaction both husband and wife from losing when you do and when, as freshly married by Dr. L. E. Hutton in "Sex Technique in Marriage," you discover and married women will find in reading this "all out" handling of a delicate subject.

In plain language this book discusses the all-important details of sexual intercourse. It now here brings nothing out of the depths of married love, most F.H.S. Dr. Hutton's Unpublished work. For amazing true revealing advice... all in and sexual couples all over!

Vive Vivienne!

And vive la difference!

It's the difference that makes Vivienne Duclos one of the very spiciest of French dishes, not only at the Crazy Horse Saloon, where she struts that flawless figure, but in all of France — and maybe even the U.S.!

Vivienne does some fancy stripping at the Crazy Horse, in a tableau called, "Modern Bride."

Having driven the Continent wild for the past two years, she is now contemplating a job offer in Vegas.

Vivienne would have to cool down her act for this country, 'cause in Poree nudes are much naughtier.

That Certain Flair

What does this trio have in common that makes them so torrid? It's that look that so many blondes seem to have — that flair for turning from kittenish to tigress in a wink — their wink or the right man's.

A toss of Katy Simmons' fair head (above) and strong men grow weak; while Jerri Lynn (right) caught here fresh out of her pool, shows how the natural beauty has the sultry flair always.

LION-KILLER-DILLER

Every so often a photographer will come up with the perfect prop for the perfect girl. The result? Well, it's like perfection! Here the prop is a lion skin that once graced the King of Beasts. It now graces the skin of a virtual Queen—or, to put it a better way: The Girl...

Even the Girl's name fits the mood, the time and the place: It's Margaret Warhurst, a veritable Valkyrie's name, a name to rank with that of Juno and Diana and Brunnhilde and Solveg! Can you imagine calling a goddess like this "Maggie," or "Meg"? No? Well, that's what they call her.

NEAR- SIGHTED VISION

Leigh Bourdeaux needs her glasses only for reading. Her favorite books are mysteries.

The adage that men don't make passes at gals who wear glasses must have been dreamed up by someone who never saw Leigh Bourdeaux with her spectacles on.

Actually, Leigh has the kind of figure that has her male admirers
raising their glasses to toast the sylphish spectacle she is!

Despite being slightly near-sighted, Leigh's eyes are so lovely that she was used in an eye-makeup ad.

The search for beauty never ends, be it bright sunshine

Actually, this idea of using a lion's pelt was Meg's. "I've always wanted to go on a safari and shoot a lion!" You mean — ? Oh, no — not with a gun — with a camera! Anybody who'd kill such a noble beast is a — a beast!" She's saving for her safari with her modeling fees.

At right, Margaret is sprawlin' and, below, lyin' on the lian and, as she says, "I've nothing studies old humar at the New School.)

What kind of man does Meg like?

The sincere type, because she just can't stand a male lyin'!

POETRY OF FORM

An inspiration for the artistry of painters and poets alike is provided by this artful mood shot of Louise Haraldson, an introspective blonde with an extraverted personality to match her extra-special visual charms. So here she is, a framed frame who's well worth the framing!

Annette hopes to make the U.S. Olympic swimming team next time out, and is studying for a college degree in Education in her spare time, with a future in mind as a teacher of Health Education in high school.

Whether she does a blues or rock 'n roll number, men who listen to her just can't help chorusing joyfully,
"You Made Me Love You."

and some prefer it frilly, but we will

Jane Larson has picked her island—it's Andros in the Bahamas —and is practicing up for it in un-deserted Southern California...

We love Harris in the springtime and we love Harris in the fall. In fact, we love Harris all the time. Jeanie with the light brown hair has the Frenchmen flipping for her terrific dance routines. You can hear them all sighing on the Seine.

Jerri Lynn (right) caught here fresh out of her pool, shows how the natural beauty has the sultry flair always.

Jill Scott, a fiery redhead from Buffalo, N. Y., came out to Hollywood to seek her fortune in the flicks. She tried modeling while waiting for a break and did so well that she kept at it.

Photogs can snap Jill from any angle since she doesn't have a bad side. Or bad anything, yes?

Jill is not only as pretty as a picture but she points pretty pictures, too. Aside from pointing, her favorite hobbies are water skiing and skeet shooting. Jill likes to refer to the bungolow she owns as "The House That Jack Built..."

A toss of Katy Simmons' fair head (above) and strong men grow weak;

But the thing most needed
by timid men to build up
their confidence is a large
dose of inspiration. So
here's Lono Curtis, just what the head-doctor ordered
to make bashful guys speak
out very loud and clear!

Away from the Crowd

Far from the maddening crowd—and prying eyes—go these three misses in search of “peace and quiet.” All three are leading lights in the whirl of Hollywood modeling, and cherish their own brand of sweet solitude.

plenty, students of beauty can learn a lot, lot more.

Give Solly Bortman a long, lonely expanse of her favorite beach, near La Jolla, and she's content.

Sheila Gray shows sample of the lovely limbs on this family tree.

Simone Girardoux of the Folies Bergere

The chorines in the current show at the Sands Hotel come from such far-flung places as South Africa, Finland and Japan.

But the harem-girl beauty, above, in the Dunes' extravaganza is strictly from New York. Her name's Ruth Golden and she was born and raised in the Bronx. Still she ups that Vegas heat just as much as foreign femmes.

Jeanne Aramis and Helga Bjornstrand

American beauties travel from east and west to compete for a chance to appear in a Vegas extravaganza. Two who made it are Eleanor Richter from Maine and Ann Dawes (r.) of Seattle.

Among the most sizzling of the sirens appearing in Vegas are these girls from the chorus of the Minsky show. When the most famous name in burlesque was dealt in, all shows got hotter.

The torridity became even more intense when niteries began to import the top French spectaculars. Here, the Folies Bergere presents two of its top teasers to demonstrate the Paris style.

But Vegas has a style all its own as well. And here are two natives of the resort city in a western satire as sexy as it is funny. These two girls went on to appear in a H'wood film.

Starring in a harem sequence in one Vegas revue, these three beauties were actually brought in from as Oriental a region as old London. They may lack authenticity, but nothing else!

Everybody Loves a Fireplace

Hame is where the hearth is as far as Susan Waite is concerned. She'll gladly do without some luxuries, but insists on fireplace.

Valerie, a cuddlesome Connecticut cutie, is a model-actress, has appeared off Broadway. She has won more pin-up contests than Moys has homers.
